I fucked you. I broke your body. You're crying now.
You can't even see me anymore. I see you.
Every inch of your subtotal body disruption.
I can look as long as I want, you're just a picture on the image roll, hand clawed, chest caved in, crying tears that can't even make it down your face without falling into the holes, I did that to you, you're the only thing I'm allowed to ruin, I fucked—
